

Grandpalais

Biography of Jean-Paul Cluzel

President of the Etablissement public of the Rmn-Grand Palais (since January 2011)

Aged 64, Inspector General of Finance

Graduate of the Institut d'études politiques in Paris, the Paris-Assas Faculty of Law and Economics, and the University of Chicago (Master of Arts).

Studied at the École nationale d'administration (ÉNA) (1970-72)

Inspector of Finance (1972-76)

Policy officer at the General Secretariat of the Inter-ministerial Committee for European economic cooperation issues (1976-78)

Technical adviser to the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Jean François-Poncet (1979-1981)

General Inspection of Finance (IGF) (1981-82),

Financial adviser for Africa at the Treasury (1982-84)

Sub-director, responsible for research and development (1985-86), Director for Overseas territories and foreign affairs for the insurance company Gan (Groupe des assurances nationales) (1986)

Cabinet director for Bernard Bosson (minister delegate at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, responsible for European affairs) (1986-88)

General inspector of finance (1990)

Deputy departmental manager, IGF (1990)

Secretary of the Council for prospection and evaluation at the Ministry of Finance (1991)

Director-general (1992-94) then Director of the Paris Opera (1994-95)

CEO of Radio France internationale (RFI) (1995-2004)

President of Radio Monte-Carlo Middle-East (RMC-MO) (1996-2004)

CEO of Radio France (2004-09).

President of the Grand Palais and of the Board of Directors of the Rmn (September 2009 - January 2011)

Decorations:

Officer of the Légion d'honneur

Commander of the Ordre national du Mérite et des Arts et des lettres

Officer of Merit of the Federal Republic of Germany

Officer of the Order of the Infante Dom Enrique (Portugal).